Searching Federal Courts:

District Courts index by defendant, plaintiff, and by case number. Bankruptcy Courts usually index by debtor and case number. Most case files created prior to 1999 were maintained in paper format only. Since 2006, all cases are filed electronically. Paper case files may be stored at the courthouse or forwarded to a designated Federal Records Center (see <http://archives.gov/frc>), the timeframe determined by the Court. These case files may be obtained via the Court or directly from the FRC. Case data may be viewed PACER, the online public access program. An account is required, the fee is $.10 per page; there is no fee if a usage does not exceed $15.00 in a quarter. For details about PACER see the Appendix or go to <https://www.pacer.gov> or call 800-676-6856.

The copy fee is $.50; $.10 if electronic document is printed from terminal. Certification fee is $11.00 per document and $21.00 for exemption, if available. If a case is still available from the individual federal court, the search fee is $30.00. If the case is at the Archives, the case can be ordered from the court. The fee to retrieve a paper file is $64.00 for the first box and $39.00 ea add'l box. Also, the public can order copies direct online from the National Archives. Copies can be delivered by mail, fax, or email. See more information at www.archives.gov/research/court-records/55.

Details on the Court Structure

The Superior Court is Georgia's general jurisdiction trial court. It has exclusive, constitutional authority over felony cases, divorce, equity and cases regarding title to land.

State Courts exercise limited jurisdiction within a county. These judges hear misdemeanors including traffic violations, issue search and arrest warrants, hold preliminary hearings in criminal cases and try civil matters not reserved exclusively for the Superior Courts. The Superior Court will also assume the role of a State Court if the county does not have one.

In counties where there is not a State Court, traffic violations can be held in a variety of courts, depending on the county, including Magistrate, Probate, or Superior.

Magistrate Courts have jurisdiction for bad checks, arrest warrants, preliminary hearings, and county ordinance violations and can also issue arrest warrants and set bond on all felonies. The Magistrate Court has jurisdiction over civil actions under $15,000, also one type of misdemeanor related to passing bad checks. Two counties (Bibb and Richmond) have Civil/Magistrate courts with varied civil limits.

Municipal Courts try municipal ordinance violations, issue criminal warrants, conduct preliminary hearings, and may have concurrent jurisdiction over shoplifting cases and cases involving possession of one ounce or less of marijuana.

The jurisdiction of Juvenile Courts extends to delinquent children under the age of 17 and deprived or unruly children under the age of 18. Juvenile courts have concurrent jurisdiction with Superior Courts in cases involving capital felonies, custody and child support cases, and in proceedings to terminate parental rights. The Juvenile Court also has jurisdiction over minors committing traffic violations or enlisting in the military services, consent to marriage for minors, and cases involving the Interstate Compact on Juveniles. Note the Superior Courts have original jurisdiction over those juveniles who commit certain serious felonies.

Probate Courts issue marriage licenses. They may hold habeas corpus hearings or preside over criminal preliminary hearings. Unless a jury trial is requested, probate court judges may also hear certain misdemeanors, traffic cases and violations of state game and fish laws in counties where there is no state court. When authorized by local statute, probate judges serve as election supervisors and make appointments to certain local public offices. The home page for the GA Probate courts is <https://www.gaprobate.org/>. From here you can find the web page for each county's probate court.

Record Searching Facts You Need to Know

Fees and Record Searching Tips

Copy and certification fees are governed by O.C.G.A.15-6-77; however, some courts vary from this schedule. The copy fee is $.50 per page, but some courts will charge $1.00 if their personnel make the copy. The certification fee is $2.50 for the first page and $.50 each add'l page, but again some courts will charge more.

Many Georgia county trial courts will not perform criminal record searches or civil record searches. Hiring a local record retriever is advised. If no retriever is available ask a local law firm for assistance.

Online Access is Limited

There is no statewide online access available. However, approx. 20% of the trial courts offer online access to court docket data.

Georgia County Locator

You will usually be able to find the city name in the City/County Cross Reference below. However, only the official US Postal Service city names are included in this index. There are an additional 40,000 place names that people use in their addresses. Therefore, we have also included a ZIP/City Cross Reference immediately following the City/County Cross Reference.

If you know the ZIP Code but the city name does not appear in the City/County Cross Reference index, look up the ZIP Code in the ZIP/City Cross Reference, find the city name, then look up the city name in the City/County Cross Reference. For example, you want to know the county for an address of Menands, NY 12204. There is no "Menands" in the City/County Cross Reference. The ZIP/City Cross Reference shows that ZIP Codes 12201-12288 are for the city of Albany. Looking back in the City/County Cross Reference, Albany is in Albany County.
