Searching Standards for Federal Courts:

District Courts indexed by defendant, plaintiff, and by case number. Bankruptcy Courts usually index by debtor and case number. Most case files created prior to 1999 were maintained in paper format only. Since 2006, all cases are filed electronically. Paper case files may be stored at the courthouse or forwarded to a designated Federal Records Center (see <http://archives.gov/frc>), the timeframe determined by the Court. These case files may be obtained via the Court or directly from the FRC.

Case data may be viewed PACER, the online public access program. An account is required, the fee is $.10 per page; there is no fee if a usage does not exceed $15.00 in a quarter. For details about PACER see the Appendix or go to <https://www.pacer.gov> or call 800-676-6856.

The copy fee is $.50; $.10 if electronic document is printed from terminal. Certification fee is $11.00 per document and $21.00 for exemplification, if available. If a case is still available from the individual federal court, the search fee is $30.00. If the case is at the Archives, the case can be ordered from the court. The fee to retrieve a paper file is $64.00 for the first box and $39.00 ea add'l box. Also, the public can order copies direct online from the National Archives. Copies can be delivered by mail, fax, or email. See more information, including fees, at www.archives.gov/research/court-records/.55.

Administration

Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), 901 Corporate Center Drive, Raleigh, NC 27607-5045; 919- 890-1000 www.nccourts.org

The Supreme and Appellate Courts

The Supreme Court is the court of last resort. The Court of Appeals is the state's only intermediate appellate court. Opinions are available from the home page.

Courts and Jurisdiction

| Court | Type | How Organized | Jurisdiction Highpoints |
|------------|---------|----------------------------|--|
| Superior * | General | 100 Courts in 46 Districts | Felony, Civil $10,000 or above |
| District* | Limited | 100 Courts in 39 Districts | Misdemeanor, Limited Civil, Small Claims Juvenile, Traffic, Ordinances, Evictions, Infractions |

* Profiled in this Sourcebook.

Details on the Court Structure

All felony criminal cases, civil cases involving more than $10,000, and misdemeanor and infraction appeals from District Court are tried in the Superior Court.

District Courts are divided into four categories: civil, criminal, juvenile, and magistrate. The courts therefore handle civil case less than $10,000, misdemeanors and infractions, juvenile, small claims, and evictions. Civil cases include divorce, custody, child support and cases involving less than $10,000 or small claims ($5,000 or less). Note that a Magistrate is a judicial officer of the District Court and the Magistrate presides over the Small Claims Court and evictions. The principal relief sought in Small Claims Court is money, the recovery of specific personal property, or summary ejection (eviction).

The local chief District Court judge in each site administers the Family Court. Uncontested Probate is handled by County Clerks.

Record Searching Facts You Need to Know

Fees and Record Searching Tips

The counties combine the courts in one courthouse and one record database, thus searching is done through one court, not two, within the county. Many courts recommend that civil searches be done in person or by a retriever and that criminal searches only be requested in writing. Very few courts will do a civil record name search.

A fee structure is in place that mandates copy fees to be $2.00 for the first page and $.25 each additional page, and $25.00 for a criminal record search, which in most jurisdictions includes certification. Most courts have adopted these rules. Many courts have archived their records prior to 1968 in the Raleigh State Archives, 919-807-7280.

Online Access

The state AOC provides ongoing, high volume requesters and vendors with portions of electronic criminal and civil records on an ongoing basis pursuant to a licensing agreement. A Daily Criminal access is supplied. However in 2011, the case dispositions were removed from the extract. Users were forced to access a secondary source - known as the Green Screen - to find the case details. The Green Screen is a cumbersome system using technology from the 1970's. The requirement to using the Green Screen has increased the turnaround time and fees charged by vendors. To obtain cost and connectivity information contact the NCAOC Remote Public Access team at 919-890-2220 or via email at rpa@nccourts.org. For a list of the participating vendors visit the web at <http://www.nccourts.org/Citizens/GoToCourt/Documents/cbcccompanies.pdf>.

There are several other limited North Carolina online services that are free. Search current civil and criminal court calendars at www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars.html. Search the District and Superior Court Query system for current criminal defendants at <http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/CriminalQuery.html>. At this site there are also queries for Impaired Driving, Citations, and Current Civil and Criminal Calendars.

Also, note an eFiling Pilot Program is operational in Chowan, Davidson, and Wake counties.
