Searching Standards for Federal Courts:

District Courts indexed by defendant, plaintiff, and by case number. Bankruptcy Courts usually index by debtor and case number. Most case files created prior to 1999 were maintained in paper format only. Since 2006, all cases are filed electronically. Paper case files may be stored at the courthouse or forwarded to a designated Federal Records Center (see <http://archives.gov/frc>), the timeframe determined by the Court. These case files may be obtained via the Court or directly from the FRC.

Case data may be viewed PACER, the online public access program. An account is required, the fee is $.10 per page; there is no fee if a usage does not exceed $15.00 in a quarter. For details about PACER see the Appendix or go to <https://www.pacer.gov> or call 800-676-6856.

The copy fee is $.50; $.10 if electronic document is printed from terminal. Certification fee is $11.00 per document and $21.00 for exemplification, if available. If a case is still available from the individual federal court, the search fee is $30.00. If the case is at the Archives, the case can be ordered from the court. The fee to retrieve a paper file is $64.00 for the first box and $39.00 ea add'l box. Also, the public can order copies direct online from the National Archives. Copies can be delivered by mail, fax, or email. See more information, including fees, at www.archives.gov/research/court-records/55.

The Supreme Court and Appellate Court

The Supreme Court is the court of last resort. The Court of Appeals was created to hear most types of appeals from the circuit court and the family court. Exceptions are when the appeal falls within any of the seven classes of exclusive jurisdiction listed under the Supreme Court. Various Opinion searches of the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals are viewable from the web page at www.sccourts.org. Click on the appropriate tab.

Details on the Court Structure

The Circuit Court, the state's court of general jurisdiction, has a civil court called the Court of Common Pleas and a criminal court called the Court of General Sessions. In addition to its general trial jurisdiction, the Circuit Court has limited appellate jurisdiction over appeals from the Probate Court, Magistrate's Court, and Municipal Court. Masters-in-Equity have jurisdiction in matters referred to them by the Circuit Courts.

Magistrate Courts (also known as Summary Courts) generally have criminal trial jurisdiction over all offenses subject to the penalty of a fine as set by statute, but generally not exceeding $500.00 or imprisonment not exceeding 30 days, or both. In addition, they are responsible for setting bail, conducting preliminary hearings, and issuing arrest and search warrants. Magistrates have civil jurisdiction when the amount does not exceed $7,500. Magistrates have concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Court for landlord-tenant matters

Municipal Courts have jurisdiction over cases arising under ordinances of the municipality, and over all offenses which are subject to a fine not exceeding $500.00 or imprisonment not exceeding 30 days, or both, and which occur within the municipality. In addition Municipal Courts may hear cases transferred from General Sessions when the penalty for which does not exceed one year imprisonment or a fine of $5,000, or both. However, a municipality may, establish an agreement to prosecute its cases in the Magistrate court, in lieu of establishing its own Municipal Court. Probate Courts have jurisdiction over marriage licenses, estates, guardianships of incompetents, conservatorships of estates of minors and incompetents, minor settlements under $25,000 and involuntary commitments to institutions for mentally ill and/or chemically dependent persons.

The Family Court has exclusive jurisdiction over all matters involving domestic or family relationships.

Record Searching Facts You Need to Know

Fees and Record Searching Tips

Most South Carolina courts will not conduct searches. However, if a name and case number are provided, many will pull and copy the record. For the courts that do searches, the fees vary widely as they are set individually by county. Prepayment is required unless otherwise noted.

If requesting a record in writing, it is recommended that the phrase "Request that General Session, Common Pleas, and Family Court records be searched" be included in the request.

Online Access is by County

The web page at www.sccourts.org/caseSearch/ provides individual county links for a case record search. All counties participate. But note the search is available only on a per-county look-up; there is no statewide single search.

Many of these county online search sites give users an initial choice between searching for records from a Circuit Court or Summary Court. Some counties include records from the Magistrate Courts; some include state and federal tax liens. However per local record researchers, it is worth noting that all Summary (Magistrate) Courts' records are online but there are instances when Summary records may be missing cases, sentence details, probation updates/violations.

The online search is essentially the same search viewable at each of the local court locations using the on-site public use terminal.

South Carolina Recording Offices

Organization:

South Carolina is divided into 46 recorder districts with an elected or appointed Recorder or Clerk responsible for each office. Documents related to the ownership of real estate within the county are recorded at either the Register of Deeds Office, or the Clerk of Courts Office depending on the county. In some counties this position is known as the Register of Mense Conveyances. Note the Clerk of Court often serves as the Register of Deeds in smaller counties.

South Carolina is in the Eastern Time Zone (EST).

Types of Documents Recorded:

Documents recorded include: Mortgages, Deeds, Plats of Property, Easements and Right of Ways, Tax Liens, Federal Tax Liens, and UCC Finance Statements

Per SC law, no recorded document may include a person's SSN or DL# unless otherwise required by law.

Searching Real estate Records:

Most counties will not perform real estate searches. Copy and certification fees vary. The Assessor keeps tax records.

Searching UCC Records:

Financing statements are filed at the state level except for real estate related collateral which are filed with the Register. However, prior to July, 2001, consumer goods and farm collateral were also filed at the Register and these older records can be searched locally. Not all recording offices perform UCC searches, but when done the search fee is usually $5.00 per debtor name.

Searching Tax Lien Records:

All federal and state tax liens on personal property and on real property are filed with the Register of Mesne Conveyances or Clerk of Court. A few counties will perform tax lien searches.

Online Access:

There is no statewide system, but the majority of county recorders offer free access to information via the web.

Nearly all counties provide online to assessor and tax related data, often through a vendor.

South Carolina County Locator

You will usually be able to find the city name in the City/County Cross Reference below. In that case, it is a simple matter to determine the county from the cross reference. However, only the official US Postal Service city names are included in this index. We have also included a ZIP/City Cross Reference immediately following the City/County Cross Reference. If you know the ZIP Code but the city name does not appear in the City/County Cross Reference index, look up the ZIP Code in the ZIP/City Cross Reference, find the city name, then look up the city name in the City/County Cross Reference.
